Oregon Diversity Institute Mission Statement

Oregon Diversity Institute (ODI) addresses historical and contemporary issues of access, social justice, human rights and equity. We promote respectful, open, and honest interactions amongst people and communities of diverse abilities and backgrounds.

Goals and Objectives

- Honor, value, and celebrate the potential of individuals from diverse communities reflecting, but not limited to, age, class, disability, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, race, and religion.
- Provide opportunities for learning, dialogue, understanding, and empowerment in preparation for the increasingly diverse future.
- Create a network among Oregon educational institutions and lifelong learners.
- Foster partnerships with private and public agencies.
- Promote systematic planning and institutional transformation in order to address historical and present inequities.
- Examine hegemonic power relationships that create inequity and discrimination.
