

Faculty Member _____

Contracted Faculty
Teaching Overload At Part-Time Rate
2012-2013

Contractual Language

Contracted faculty members (including temporary and teaching-only) wishing to utilize their right to teach an overload at part-time rates (limit to two courses per calendar year; maximum of 10 credits or .23 annual FTE, whichever is greater; paid at part-time rate + 1 full step). Faculty members requesting overload assignment shall be provided one additional course before any are provided a second. [ie. each member in a discipline requesting an overload opportunity will have one such opportunity before any member of the discipline gets a second opportunity.]

Assignments are made starting with RIF seniority. Each time a section is available, the next most senior contracted faculty on the RIF list is given the opportunity for an assignment until all contracted faculty in the discipline have had an opportunity. Subsequent assignment opportunities start again with the most senior discipline faculty member. This document does NOT guarantee availability of overload classes.

I am interested in teaching an overload in the 2012-2013 school year:

YES ____ NO ____ (if you respond NO please see below signature line)

If an opportunity arises, I want to do an overload in the following term(s):

[Note: two course limit.]

Summer 12 ____ Fall 12 ____ Winter 13 ____ Spring 13 ____

Faculty Signature _____ Date: _____

----- OR -----

I am NOT interested in teaching an overload in the 2012-2013 school year at this time. I understand that to be considered for such an assignment in my discipline, I will need to revise and re-submit this form.

Faculty Signature _____ Date: _____

Please return by March 18th, 2012. Solicitation for assignments under this contract language above will be provided to those who have this form on file.