

SUCCESS FOR SCHOLARS

a New Learning Community

Are you ready for a learning challenge in a supportive and collaborative environment?

Try an Honors Learning Community!

Success for Scholars can help you...

- ... Recognize and develop your intellect
- ... Realize you can achieve at unexpected levels
- ... Discover and develop your motivation to be academically successful
- ... Learn how to be well-prepared
- ... Study collaboratively
- ... Participate actively inside and outside of class
- ... Learn what it is to be a scholar

Why you should take Success for Scholars:

- ◆ Two linked classes (either WR 121_H or WR 122_H linked with CG 100 College Success) that build community
- ◆ Increase your success by learning how to connect knowledge/ideas across courses
- ◆ Earn honors credit to take with you if you decide to join the Honors program

What students say about Learning Communities:

- "I have learned that I have a talent, and I have a responsibility to the world to make use of it."
- "It helped me get organized to achieve goals I set for myself."
- "I learned to not let small setbacks get in the way of believing that I can do anything I set my mind to."
- "I truly believe in myself and know that I'm fully capable of reaching my desired goals."

Course Descriptions:

CG 100 College Success — Learn proven strategies for creating greater academic, professional, and personal success. Develop skills that lead to improved experiences and outcomes.

WR 121_H Introduction to Academic Writing — Understand your subject matter, audience, purpose, and point-of-view. Learn how to analyze and evaluate other writers' work.

WR 122_H Argument, Style, and Research — Engage with how Black Americans have created and used their own distinctive rhetoric to craft arguments whose aim is to persuade people both within and outside Black American culture.

Registration Instructions:

This Learning Community is offered Fall term only. These courses are designed for you to take together. Check the online class schedule for the CRNs for the current term. You must enter both CRNs for the option you choose on the same registration screen in myLane. Once registered, you may not drop one class without dropping both classes.
