 Required prerequisite for the web sequence.
 Required prerequisite for the production sequence.
*If declared your Graphic Design major prior to Fall 2015, you may use Art 261 beg. Photography for this.

3. Review this section carefully. If accepted into the second year of the Graphic Design Program you will be taking the following courses in fall/winter/spring sequences in order to complete our degree:
Graphic Design Sequence (Art 221, Art 222, Art 223)
Production Sequence (Art 227, Art 228, Art 229)
Web Sequence (CIS 195, Art 289, Art 290)
Cooperative Education courses (Art 280 GD - usually scheduled with the Design Sequence)

If you plan on taking more than one year to complete the second year of the Graphic Design Program you may be assigned to take the Production sequence first. Generally, students take Cooperative Education concurrent following Graphic Design Production and generally after at the first class in the design sequence. The Web Sequence may be paired with either, but is preferred taken with the Design Sequence.

5. Mark this section very carefully.
