Bus information: The Eugene area is served by the Lane Transit District. On Saturday, bus 81 is the only bus that serves Lane Community College from the Eugene Downtown Station at 10th and Olive. Bus 81 departs once an hour going to and from the Lane Community College. The last bus departs the Lane Campus at 5:03 PM. Information about bus routes and schedules can be located at: <http://www.ltd.org/index.html>

Food: Lane Community College is a commuter campus located on the Southeast edge of Eugene. On Friday, April 20th, the Lane cafeteria will be open in the first floor of the Center Building of the Lane Community College Main Campus. On Saturday, April 21st, there will be food carts on campus for Peace Symposium/MTA Democracy Convergence attendees to purchase food. If you do not wish to purchase food on campus, you are advised to bring your own meals.

Disability Resources: To request disability-related accommodations that will facilitate your full participation in this event (such as Sign Language interpreting, Braille, electronic text, visual describer), please contact Disability Resources at least one week in advance: (541) 463-5150 (voice); 711 (relay); Building 1, 218; or disabilityresources@lanecc.edu (e-mail).

Special Accommodation Transportation Note: If you or anyone in your party attending the symposium requires transportation assistance between the two venues for Saturday's programming (approximately 200 yards between the Lane Longhouse and Building 10), please indicate your need in your registration. Symposium staff will be on hand to provide this accommodation as seamlessly and supportively as possible. In support of the Sustainability Mission of the college, drivers will be providing this transportation through the use of no-emission electric golf carts charged at an on-site charging station.

Longhouse Protocol: The Lane Community College Longhouse <http://www.lanecc.edu/nasa/longhouse/why.html> is a sacred space built in partnership and collaboration with the nine Oregon Tribes. It is the first in the nation to be built at a Community College. This sacred space should be entered with respect and appreciation. No sales of any kind are allowed in the Longhouse.

Donations: While the 2012 Peace Symposium is free and open to the public, there are substantial costs incurred by the Lane Peace Center. The Peace Center is self supporting and therefore depends upon your generous donations. Please make a donation while registering to the Lane Peace Center through the Lane Foundation, please add a note for "Fund 2088".

Live Streamed Event: Portions of the 2012 Peace Symposium and Democracy Convergence will be live streamed. Your presence indicates your consent to the live stream.

Smoke Free Campus: Lane Community College is a smoke free campus. Smoking is not permitted in the core area of the campus. Designated smoking areas are located in the parking lot areas of the campus.

Additional information: If you have additional questions, visit the Lane Peace Center web page at: <http://www.lanecc.edu/peacecenter/> or e-mail the Lane Peace Center before April 20, 2012 at: PeaceCenter@lanecc.edu
