BICYCLES

Bicycles may only be ridden in areas specified for motor vehicles. Bicycles may not be ridden on inner areas of campus for reasons of pedestrian safety. Bicycles should be secured in a bike rack with a secure lock. Bicycles may not be secured to stairways or other parts of buildings, or stored inside college buildings. Bikes may be registered with the Public Safety Department online. Visit www.lanecc.edu/psd and follow the links. Found or recovered bikes are impounded at Public Safety.

NON-MOTORIZED VEHICLES

The use of scooters, skateboards, roller skates, rollerblades and other similar items are strictly prohibited on all Lane Community College property. There is a $20 fine for violating this policy.

Lane Community College does not assume any responsibility for lost/stolen bicycles or other items on college property.

KEYS AND KEY CARDS

- LCC policy prohibits the duplication or lending of issued keys
- Do not allow unauthorized persons to enter areas you have unlocked. If you lose a key, report it to Public Safety immediately
- Report lost or stolen Key Cards immediately to Public Safety at 541.463.5558
- Key Cards may not be transferred or loaned. Each card holder is personally responsible for her/his card
- Keycard replacement (lost cards) $10

PARKING

Typically, competition for parking spaces during the first two weeks of fall, winter and spring terms is at its highest. To avoid the stress of trying to locate a spot:

- Ride the bus
- Carpool with Zimride
- If you must drive, plan to arrive early for classes or events
- Stop at Public Safety to obtain a copy of the Parking Brochure. The brochure is also online at: www.lanecc.edu/psd/parking

SMOKING ON CAMPUS

Smoking and all other tobacco use is prohibited in all core areas of Lane's main 30th Avenue campus; smoking and tobacco use is allowed in four designated peripheral areas only. See map for designated areas. Smoking and other tobacco use is prohibited completely in all other Lane campuses and locations. If violated a $25 fine will be issued.

GENERAL CRIME PREVENTION FOR STAFF

- Lock office doors, even when only leaving for a few minutes
- Avoid leaving keys or valuables in your office
- Do not prop open doors. If you find a door propped open, or notice anything suspicious, contact Public Safety at extension 5558
