

Join Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society for Two-Year Colleges

BENEFITS OF BEING INVOLVED WITH YOUR LOCAL CHAPTER, SIGMA ZETA:

- Leadership opportunities and training. You may be a chapter or regional officer and receive training that will allow you to be an effective leader.
- Service to your college, community, and region. Employers like to see service on resumes, and the chapter is involved in many academic and service projects.
- Personal letters of recommendation for scholarships and post-graduate opportunities. Members have received numerous scholarships and internships.

SOME GENERAL MEMBER BENEFITS INCLUDE:

- The ability to apply for over $37 million in scholarships, which are provided exclusively to Phi Theta Kappa members. These scholarships are for community college study and transfer to more than 600 senior colleges and universities.
- Enroll in College Fish to customize scholarship and transfer college opportunities that will meet your needs.
- Members receive a 10 percent discount on books purchased from Better World Books, and there is free shipping within the United States. Go to <http://www.ptk.org> and click on the Better World Books link.
- Free enrollment in the Transfer Database. The database is used by hundreds of senior colleges and universities to recruit Phi Theta Kappa transfer members.
- Phi Theta Kappa's gold diploma seal affixed to members' diplomas.
- Membership in Phi Theta Kappa noted on college transcripts.
- The prestigious Golden Key membership pin, certificate of membership, and wallet-size identification card.
- Authority to purchase and wear Phi Theta Kappa's regalia: gold monogrammed Honors stole, cords, and tassel at graduation.
- Access to services, programs, and resources designed specifically for Phi Theta Kappa members.
  - Press release announcing your membership sent electronically to your specified newspaper.
  - Letter of recommendation sent to college admissions counselors or scholarship officials.
  - Letter of recommendation sent to potential employers.
